Galesburg Landmark Commission Annual Historic Preservation Award June 6, 2023

Address: 523 N Chambers St

Recipient: Sherry & Jason Kersh

This home was constructed in 1892 by William E. Wolf, who lived in the residence for approximately the first year. Mr. Wolf was a famous local architect who designed all the residences on the east side of N Chambers St in this block, as well as the Clark E. Carr residence at 560 N. Prairie St., the John Lescher house at 534 N. Broad St., the George Lawrence house at 590 N. Prairie St. and the John Fahenstock house at 591 N. Prairie St. He also designed the First Baptist Church at Cherry and Tompkins streets, the original YMCA building on North Prairie Street, the former City Hall on South Cherry Street and numerous public school buildings.

The home is located within the Local Chambers Street Historic District, which was designated by City Council on November 1978.

This Historic Preservation Award is given to the homeowners in recognition of the restoration of the existing windows, repairs to the stone entry and exterior re-painting. The chosen color scheme enhances the architectural features of the residence.
