LC-24-0101 Consider Certificate of Appropriateness – 60 Public Square

The applicant, Ann Ehler of Central Congregational Church, was present.

The applicant is proposing the restoration and storm glazing on approximately 9 stained glass windows and 7 transoms over various doors.

Chairperson Miener discussed the National Parks Service article he shared with the Commission regarding the protection of stained glass windows and the importance of proper design and application of caulking. He also reached out to the contractor and manufacturer of the caulk. It was recommended that someone inspect the work one year after completion to ensure the caulking is still properly applied and effective.

Ms. Ehler mentioned that Jacksonville Stained Glass is an accredited professional member of The Stained Glass Association of America and follow the Standards and Guidelines for Preservation of Stained and Leaded Glass Windows.

Member Woolsey moved to approve the Certificate of Appropriateness, seconded by member Sugai.
