

Commitment to Quality

Linwood and East Linwood Cemeteries include 30 acres of manicured lawn for the final resting place of loved ones. Whether you prefer a traditional casket burial, urn burial, mausoleum, or the scattering of cremains, the city of Galesburg is committed to providing a serene and beautiful landscape for your place of interment.

Traditional casket burial and urn burial at East Linwood Cemetery.

The scattering gardens provide four sections for scattering cremains. The marker in the center lists the names and date of death of those placed there.

 Scattering Garden fees include scattering of cremated human remains and engraving of name and date of death on the memorial monument. An additional name may be engraved at time of first scattering for a nominal charge. An additional fee will be charged when those cremains are scattered.*

A section has been set aside to honor veterans.

An area especially for mausoleums is located near the center of East Linwood Cemetery.

Pre-need payment options are available
